LAST WEEK - 1728

DALBY MARKET REPORT - Wednesday 8th June 2022

Numbers eased back again this week on the back of local rain over the weekend with Combined agents yarding a total of 2165 cattle for this week's Dalby sale. A mixed yarding of cattle came to hand selling to a varied market, with some descriptions selling to a reduced market and others to a dearer trend. The export market was firm to easier across the board with Bulls seeing the Job ease slightly $320.0 - $365.2. Heavy cows saw a similar trend with cows easing 5 cents to sell between $330.0 - $366.2. Limited Bullocks were yarded. Export feeders appeared to hold firm with heavy feeders selling to $5.35. Trade weight feeders held firm across all categories.

A good quality yarding of weaner and restocker cattle came to hand for the second round all selling to a firm trend. . Weaner and restocker heifers sold to a competitive panel of buyers with quality lines holding firm however lesser lines seeing prices ease 10-15 cents. A small number of cows and calves came to hand however sold to a reduced buying panel once again quality reflecting prices.
